

Parish Council Minutes

March 6, 2016

Present were Daylene and Jim Tracy, Mary Flora, Dan Winingham, Jon Baier, Brandy Gray, Carolyn Haverkamp, Martina Duloherly, Marcia Ryan, Fr. John and Robin Daniels. Everyone said a blessing they have had this past week. Daylene opened the meeting with a prayer.

Dan requested that a decision be made on where to place the statue and 2 benches, between the church and hall. A discussion brought up having a base made of memory bricks. Mary will have her grandson do several designs before a decision is made.

Jon reported there were no students for the meeting on Valentine's Day and 2 students attended the recent movie night. The CYO convention is coming up in April, possibly 5 students will be going from our parish. Daylene will need to turn in the paperwork by March 15.

Dan requested "tools for teachers" who provide religious education for our parish. He quoted Matthew Kelly "generations are formed by the stories that they are told." There is an offer to donate a big screen TV to our parish. There was a lot of discussion regarding the way young people access information in the world today. It was moved by Mary and seconded by Robin to accept the donation of the TV, and the vote carried unanimously.

Dan is still working on the bids for the sound system/speakers for the parish hall and has found a volunteer to run wire from the church to the parish hall.

Mary reported the St. Ann's quilt is finished. Thank you to those who have been preparing the soup supper on Wednesday nights during Lent.

There will be another communal penance next Sunday, March 13, 2016. The Chrism Mass will be held at the Cathedral in Salina, on March 15, at 11:30 AM. The Holy week masses are in the bulletin and on the web site. Daylene reported there are mass intentions sent from the diocese in the bulletin now.

Father John closed the meeting with a prayer.

Respectfully submitted by,
Robin Daniels
